In Top Hat, we follow Jerry Travers as he arrives in London to appear in a stage show for producer friend, Horace Hardwick. But this being a screwball comedy, things do not go according to plan and pretty soon a case of mistaken identity and romance sends things tumbling off course. Travers attempts to win the heart of Dale Tremont, but she mistakes him for Hardwick – a man married to her friend Madge – meaning that his advances horrify her as he attempts to gain her hand in marriage.

Featuring a sparkling collection of Irving Berlin's greatest hits, some brilliant dance numbers, and a stellar cast, this promises to be a wonderfully entertaining evening of live musical theatre. Don't miss out – book your seats today!

All stalls seats are numbered. If you would like stalls seats please place a cross in the area you would like on the seating diagram above. Our booking team will seek to allocate you seats in your chosen area or close by. If you prefer balcony seats place a cross anywhere in the balcony area. Don't forget to fill in the details on the booking form overleaf.

Please remember that our productions are very popular, so as the opening night approaches the number of seats available diminishes rapidly. All seats can be ordered using the booking form overleaf. Tickets can also be booked online with a debit or credit card and additional Booking Forms are available to download from our web site at www.abingdonoperatic.co.uk.

Unnumbered balcony seats are also available from Newbury Building Society, West St Helen Street, Abingdon.
