EVITA took the world by storm in the late 1970s. After several top ten chart hits in 1976, it eventually opened on the West End in 1978, then moved to Broadway and after this to major capitals around the world. We can promise you that this multi award-winning show will lift your heart and bring you to tears. Telling the rags to riches story of Argentina's Eva Peron, who rose from small-town poverty to become the darling of Argentina's poor and wife to its president. This show catapulted Tim Rice and Andrew Lloyd Webber to international fame, along with Elaine Page and David Essex in the original West End production.

Everyone at AOS is so proud to be debuting this show in Abingdon in 2019. We've pulled together a great production team and a set of fantastic principals, all backed up by the unparalleled AOS chorus and orchestra, in order to provide you with a West End experience in the heart of Abingdon. So why not give the TV a miss for one night and instead immerse yourself in the magic of live musical theatre?
