After starring alongside Jane Fonda and Lily Tomlin in the original 1980 movie, Dolly Parton wrote the music and lyrics for this musical comedy adaptation that premiered on Broadway in 2009. The show tells the story of three women, Violet, Judy and Doralee, who gradually come to the realisation that they share a mutual enemy - their domineering and lecherous boss, Franklin Hart Jnr. Circumstances lead to their taking extreme (and comic) measures to put a stop to Hart's behaviour, finally imprisoning him in his own home while they run the company in his absence.

AOS has assembled a brilliant cast of local principal performers in order to premier 9 to 5 at the Amey Theatre. There's nothing to beat live musical theatre, with a talented cast and a full professional orchestra, and of course the award-winning AOS ensemble. Whether you're a regular member of our loyal audience or a first-timer, do come and enjoy the magic of musical theatre with us.

All our seats are numbered. If you would like stalls seats please place a cross in the area you would like on the seating diagram above. Our booking team will seek to allocate you seats in your chosen area or close by. If you prefer balcony seats place a cross anywhere in the balcony area. Don't forget to fill in the details on the booking form overleaf.

Please remember that our productions are very popular, so as the opening night approaches the number of seats available diminishes rapidly. All seats can be ordered using the booking form overleaf. Tickets can also be booked online with a debit or credit card and additional Booking Forms are available to download from our web site at www.abingdonoperatic.co.uk.
